

We are always keen to share
and talk about good books!

Recommended reads from our staff are published in our newsletters and can be found in the newsletters section.

The Book Trust recommended reads:

<https://www.booktrust.org.uk/books-and-reading/our-recommendations/>

The Reader Teacher recommended reads:

<https://www.thereaderteacher.com/>

We love the BooksForTopics website, especially their Branching Out booklists. They have shared lots of book recommendations for children who have been hooked by a particular series or author and are ready to branch out.

BooksForTopics are passionate about helping readers of all ages discover new children's books and authors they will love. Whether it's newly independent readers who need more early chapter books after reading Isadora Moon or graphic novel fans looking for what to read after Dog Man. Their Branching Out booklists and posters are designed to help readers find their next favourite read after finishing a particular series or children's book they love. From books for fans of Harry Potter and more books like Tom Gates to books similar to Rainbow Magic and books for fans of the Wimpy Kid series, they've got it covered with their Branching Out booklists and posters.

<https://www.booksfortopics.com/booklists/branching-out/>

Invitations to share the love of reading 3-16 years - Reading for Pleasure

Reading Together Treasure Hunt!

Reading for pleasure: just window dressing?

The Open University:

Reading aloud to children: 7 steps to making it magical | OU News | Open University

Book Chat: Reading with your Child - Reading for Pleasure