Spalding St Paul's Primary

Learning for Life

Confident Communicators | Resilient Researchers | Aspirational Ambassadors | Collaborative Citizens

Home School Agreement

At Spalding St Paul's Primary School, it is important that families, pupils and staff, respect each other's contributions to school life and work together to achieve the highest possible levels of success for all our pupils.

Why do we need a Home School Agreement?

- It acts as a reminder of commitments.
- It underpins the school's values and stated beliefs.
- It acts as a clear starting point for new pupils, their parents/carers and the school staff.
- It provides a starting point for exploring difficulties.

Staff will:
Continue to be Life Long Learners throughout their time at St Paul's School.

Confident Communicators
Staff will support children to be Confident Communicators by:
-Listening to the children at all times,
-Listening to parents/carers about any concerns they have and responding to any concerns / email in a timely manner,
-Speaking respectfully to children and parents/carers at all times.

Resilient Researchers
Staff will support children to be Resilient Researchers by:
-Planning and delivering a high-quality education which motivates the children,
-Providing children each week with homework of a high standard,
-Providing children with quality texts to read at school and at home matched to their ability,
-Monitoring children's attainment and progress and put in any support if necessary.

Aspirational Ambassadors
Staff will support children to be Aspirational Citizens by:
-Being positive,
-Supporting children coming into school on time,
-Having high expectations of the children and their parents/carers.,
-Helping pupils to manage their emotions and behaviours effectively.

Collaborative Citizens

Staff will support children to be Collaborative Citizens by:
-Implementing the school rules,
-Having a clear uniform policy and support any parents/carers who are struggling to follow this,
-Supporting the children to work together and get along,
-Teaching children about the diverse world we live in including faith, race, gender, age, disability and sexuality through a diverse curriculum, assemblies and trips and visits.

Families will:
Help children gain the skills to be Life Long Learners during their time at St Paul's School and beyond

Be Confident Communicators

Families will support children to be Confident Communicators by:
-Listening to the staff and children at all times,
-Attending events to support their child's learning,
-Show respect to staff when addressing any concerns by talking to staff in a polite and respectful way.

Resilient Researchers

Families will support children to be Resilient Researchers by:
-Supporting your child to do their best at school,
-Supporting your child in completing homework each week,
-Reading at home as often as you can with your child and completing their reading diaries,
-Supporting your child with any additional support given.

Aspirational Ambassadors

Families will support children to be Aspirational Citizens by:
-Being positive about the school and staff,
-Always getting your child to school on time,
-Having high expectations of your child,
-Helping your child to manage their emotions and behaviours effectively.

Collaborative Citizens

Families will support children to be Collaborative Citizens by:
-Supporting the school in implementing the school rules,
-Ensuring your child is always correctly dressed with all items of clothing labelled,
-Supporting your child to work together and get along with their friends,
-Respecting the diverse world we live in.

Children will:
Engage in school to enable them to be Life Long Learners during their time at St Paul's School and beyond

Be Confident Communicators

Children will be Confident Communicators by:
-Listening to the staff their parents/carers and their friends at all times,
-Speaking respectfully to staff, parents/carers and their friends at all times.

Resilient Researchers

Children will be Resilient Researchers by:
-Trying your best at all times,
-Doing your homework each week and handing it in on time,
- Reading at home as often as you can and filling out your reading diary,
- Always trying your best with the support you have been given.

Aspirational Ambassadors

Children will be Aspirational Citizens by:
-Being positive about the school and your work,
-Always coming into school on time,
-Having high expectations of yourself and those you work with,
-Showing respect to all staff and talking to staff and your parents/carers if you are worried about anything and allowing us to help you.

Collaborative Citizens

Children will be Collaborative Citizens by:
-Respecting the school rules and following these,
-Coming into school wearing the correct school uniform and looking after it,
-Working hard to get along with their friends and work out positive ways to resolve disagreements,
-Respecting the diverse world we live in including faith, race, gender, age, disability and sexuality.